HANDICAP COMPETITION INSTRUCTIONS

In all Handicap Competitions it is imperative that all entrants must:-

- Register in the Pro Shop
- Record their scores in the computer
- Sign and return their cards to the Recorder's box

All the numbers must match up, so regardless of no returns or part completed rounds, all cards must be signed and returned.

Failure to do so will lead to disqualification and possible future suspension.

READY GOLF

As per the latest R & A Manual on Pace of Play we have decided to adopt "Play When Ready" golf in all Strokeplay formats in order to try and improve the time taken to complete our competitions. This does not apply to Matchplay.

This is a basic, common sense, approach and now proper etiquette rather than having to wait on the person who is furthest away from the hole if they are not ready or able to play. However this is not a green light to rush up to your ball and hit it, but encouraging players to play sensibly without being reckless and endangering other players. As with all golf you should be aware of your position on the course and have consideration for all players around you.

A FEW EXAMPLES

- If the person with the honour from the Tee is not ready and the hole in front is clear then whoever is ready should play.
- If the person with the honour is a long hitter and has to wait for the group in front, then a shorter hitter can play if safe to do so.
- Where possible you should always go to your own ball to be ready to play and if someone needs your help, play your shot first.

Slow play is always an issue, especially in competitions. However we are not wanting players to rush round or play out of turn but by following these small guidelines we can save valuable time. Two minutes saved per hole gets you in half an hour earlier.

BE READY TO PLAY

- When it is not your turn prepare for your next shot, check your yardage, select your club, and when it is your turn you will be ready to play promptly.
- When you walk on the green, repair pitch marks, assess your line, remove loose impediments while others are preparing to play.
- As soon as everyone has holed out leave the green and then mark the score card.
- Leave your bag in the most appropriate position, usually on the way to the next tee.

KEEP UP WITH THE GROUP IN FRONT

- If there is a gap, and you are delaying the group behind, invite them through.
- If you lose a ball and players are on the tee ready to play invite them through.

All very simple and common sense but if these small attentions to detail are followed the cumulative effect will be very significant.

3 OR 4-BALL FORMATS FOR GENTS' MEDAL COMPETITIONS

Last year we tried a few different experiments with alternating between 3 and 4-Balls, not surprisingly to mixed reviews. However it became fairly obvious one size fits all didn't work especially with the early times. Our first proper handicap competition this year is the Archie Williams on Saturday 25th March and the format will be 3-Ball up to 10.52am and 4-Ball from 11.00am and once again we will monitor the results.

However this is the preferred option for the non-qualifying Saturday medals. The intervals for the 3-Ball is 7.5 minutes and 10 minutes for the 4-Ball, so there are 24 players in each hour block for both formats.

There are six qualifying competitions which are for the Club Championships, the Strokeplay Championship and the three Aggregate competitions. These are the only seeded draws and will remain in the 3-Ball format.

With the introduction of "Ready Golf" in our Strokeplay competitions, and the wider intervals for the 4-Balls, we are attempting to produce a steady and enjoyable pace of play for all the players. However, regardless of whatever we put in place it always comes down to the individuals involved - one deliberately slow player can cause a knock on effect and all of a sudden the rounds are taking 30 minutes longer. It is imperative we try and pinpoint any unacceptable practice and we would urge you to mark both your starting and finishing times. We all want to enjoy our golf so please be considerate of others and try to keep up with the group in front .
